Will Play Atlanta Athletic Club · for Championship of South.

Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch.]

ASHEVILLE, N. C., February 17.—
For the second time this week the Young Men's Christian Association basketball team defeated the Knexville Tigers in a game on the association floor by the score of 20 to 18, last night. The game was featured by the fast playing of Meeday night's game, in which the locals defeated the visitors by the score of 36 to 21.

This victory, in the opinion of the local men, gives them an unquestionable right to play the Atlanta Athletic Club for the Southern champlonship. This game will take place in Atlanta February 26. The two successive victories from the Knoxville bunch has inspired the local men with confidence and it will be with the expectation of winning that they go to Atlanta, after a week's strenuous practice. Not a game has been lost for the past two years.

Employe Brings Action Against Contractor for Rehabilitation of Gas Works,
Suit was instituted yesterday in the Law and Equity Court by A. W. McFayden against the Stacy Manufacturing Company of Cincinnati, and the Fred Bredel Company, of Milwankee, for $10,000. The Stacy Company is the general contractor for the rehabilitation of the municipal Gas Works, the Bredel Company being a subcontractor for a portion of the work now its progress, McFayden was a workman on the job, though it does not assem to have been deficitely determined whether he was employed by the general or the subcontractor. About sixty days ago he was injured by an accident at the works, and his physicians now think he will lose the use of one cyc. Charging negligence against the companies and his fellow employes he asks $10,000 through H. St. John Coalter and L. O. Wendenburg, The city is not made a party to the suit. EGGS, MULE, NO. 13, MISHAP

Seventeen Dozen Smashed When Horse Han Away on Bank Street,

While a number of mules were being led through Bank Street yesterday aftermoon, each of them bearing a number, so as to be identified by the owner, mule No. 13 became entangled in the wheels of Carey Harrison's bugay, turning it completely around, and throwing the only occupant, a boy, who had been left to mind the horse to the ground cutting his finzer. Despite the age of the horse he darted six-zaw up the street, upsetting the bugay and breaking seventeen dozen eggs, which Mr. Harrison expected to dispose of at a Marshail Street commission house. The burse, after kicking himself clear of the buggy, ran to Ninth Street near Main, where he stumbled, cutting a ugly gash in his knee.

Mr. Harrison lives in Oak Grove, and for a number of years has brought eggs to the kichmond market. The buggy was compisitely demoliabed.
